I Was a Bad Boy Too, Says Judge

Baltimore, Dec. 23 (AP)—Landlord Claude E. Watson, seeking the eviction of the Edwin L. Hastry family, read a four-page history of the pranks of six-year-old Edwin L. Hastry Jr.

Items: Shortly after birth, he screamed and rocked back and forth in his crib. In later days, he dug up the lawn and threw it down the drain, and he rearranged the contents of other tenants' mailboxes.

Just high spirits, Judge J. Howard Murray ruled. He did the same thing when he was a boy—only the future jurist's activities extended over a city block.
