John Lake Music

Music has been a part of John's life since he was a child. When he was 9 years old, John's dad gave him his first guitar and he started playing along with the popular hits of the day. He fell in love with the guitar as a young man and he hasn't been able to put it down since.

As a young teen, John began taking guitar lessons. He then shifted his focus and started studying classical guitar. Recently, John has had the privilege of studying under Joseph Jewel, a well known Classical, Jazz, and Gypsy Jazz guitarist.

In 2007, John released his debut cd, "Rooted In Eternity". This compilation showcases his natural song-writing ability in the Classical, Bluegrass, Latin Jazz, and Progressive Jazz genres. John continues to compose and has added Gypsy Jazz to his repertoire. You can often find John paired up in a Duo with Progressive Jazz guitarist Don Mclees. Lake & Mclees are in the process of writing together for an upcoming CD project.
