

Blueprint for Your Business Future: Workshops for Immigrant Businesses

Can your business continue without you?

Learn to create an exit strategy that maximizes the value of your business. Immigrant business owners are welcome to participate in this FREE four-hour interactive workshop designed to help you start planning now for the future of your enterprises and for your families.

Sessions led by Barbara Roberts

Entrepreneur in Residence,
Columbia Business School
Author, Life after an Exit

Tuesday, June 23, 2015
4:30 - 8:30 p.m.

Bronx Library Center
310 East Kingsbridge Road

Exit, Succession, and Transition Planning - Why Plan Now?

- Anticipate unexpected circumstances
- Find the best strategy for you
- Avoid costly expenses and taxes

What are your Options for Selling or Transferring Ownership?

- How to make a smart sale
- Understand the sales process
- Locate trustworthy sales professionals
- How to find qualified buyers
- Who will take over?
- Select and train successors
- Understand the role of the family
- Manage the transition smoothly

Business Valuation - How Much is Your Business Worth?

- Steps you can take to increase the value of your business

For more information and an application, click here nypl.org/blueprint

This workshop is funded by a NYCEDC THRIVE grant

New York
Public
Library

THE BRONX CHAMBER
OF COMMERCE