Happy New Year!

Greetings to all gathered for 2024 Oshogatsu in Little Tokyo, an annual and festive tradition for all in the community to celebrate a new year and to look forward to new beginnings.

The Year of the Dragon in 2024 offers us all an opportunity to start afresh and set new goals. I look forward to working with everyone to continue building up a strong Japan-U.S. relationship and to cultivate new friends of Japan across various fields and sectors.

I offer my deep appreciation to the Japanese Chamber of Commerce of Southern California and its Foundation for further enhancing the Japan-U.S. relationship fostered by Japanese affiliated companies, as well as the Japanese and Japanese American communities. I commend all of the chamber members and supporters for their commitment and dedication to contributing to the Nikkei community in this region.

I will continue to lend my support to a wide range of initiatives carried out by Japanese Chamber of Commerce of Southern California and its Foundation for Japanese and Japanese American communities, from youth through seniors.

I congratulate the Japanese Chamber of Commerce of Southern California and its Foundation on a successful Oshogatsu event in Little Tokyo. Please accept my best wishes to all for health, happiness and prosperity throughout Year 2024!

Sincerely,

SONE Kenko

Happy New Year!

新年あけましておめでとうございます。

Welcome to Oshogatsu in Little Tokyo!

Oshogatsu in Japan is the day for a big celebration. On the first day of year, people in Japan, mostly wearing kimono, visit temples and pray for a healthy and prosperous year for their families. For the first few days of the new year, the Japanese relax at home while enjoying lots of foods, including osechi (assorted foods) and mochi. We gather here today to celebrate and welcome Oshogatsu in Los Angeles' Little Tokyo, for a little taste of Japan. We have a variety of Japanese entertainment on stage and authentic Japanese food at the booths, for you to enjoy.

The people in Japan set their new year resolutions to accomplish their own goals. So, joining this Oshogatsu event in Little Tokyo will be the first step in starting your resolution.

The past few years has been tumultuous with COVID, regional wars and political turmoil in various parts of the world. But we hope that this year will be a much better and peaceful.

Hope all of you here today will have a very healthy and prosperous year. Moreover, do enjoy your Oshogatsu here in Little Tokyo today!

Sincerely,

Haru Takehana
