

KSI - Ares Lyrics

Hm, hm, hm

Hm, hm, hm, hm

You dare test me?

Zeeshan

Ares looking down on the boy

Feelin' like he at the top

Now you better listen 'cause this nigga never wanted hippodrome

But I gotta let them know you're a flop

Not a single boom with four records on the trot

Now the little Ben was mad that his records never popped

Till he spoke about his idol, now he's going viral

Biggest song you'll ever make is author of the Bible

I'm the creed of the crop, the rocky with the cash

While you're tryna say the words, suffering succotash

Baby panickin' awkward like mannequin, motherfucker, we're battlin'

This the fall of the Anakin, make you missin' like Madeleine

You're a fan, FIFA to the football to the rappin'

My reply got you jizzin', was fishin' and baited the stan

Please don't speak again, hold up with your ventin'

Ain't it wonderful that I'm out here reinventin' your career?

Keep it measure for measure, where is your Isabella? (Hm)

Shawty left and you struggled to keep it all together (Ayy)

Not the first time you're dissin', remember me and Weller?

Lookin' back at that reinstatin' that you're a fan forever

Fuck your grade five, you don't need to lie

Glad I made you better 'cause your other shit was dry

Had to make you wait 'cause I'm always up liftin'

Scrawny with your size, maybe try some weightliftin'

Between me and you, no one wants to be you (Nah)

Looked at your past, even you know it's true

Look at that baby face (Huh?), look at that baby face (Huh?)

You can't intimidate

Boy, it's my creed to assassinate, I'm not one to agitate
Cryin' that my roster overpowered like the Golden State
Corny rappers tryna build a coup so they can elevate
No one's even ever heard of you
Until I commentated and slated, got irritated and hated
But deep inside, you're elated, you even tweeted and rated
The lyrical miracle, this is you peakin' at pinnacle
Taste of your medicine goin' and flowin' at minimal
Show me you're unusual, spit a verse where I'm not as a feature
Bet it's never better than the dissin' at your teacher
Bet this never blows up all accordin' to your preacher
Calculated moves, I'm the instigator
Forever in my shadow blessin' like your given name
I'm drinking Desperado, you can't even do the same
Commend your new bravado, thank me 'cause I'm here to blame
And if we ever played, I'll still beat you at a FIFA game

Ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha

Dax (C'mon)

Stop it, man, you ain't that (That)
Poor man's Hopsin now wanna box
Please, you're gonna get dropped
Now Crypt wanna hop on my dick
Stupid little prick, you were never involved
You can rap fast but you can't make a hit
Lullaby, rap or die, hope you die, bitch
I got no label
And I always kill it like Cain and Abel
Can't be broke, I'll revoke your progress
'Cause I am the table
You bitches are botchin'
I'm the one that they paid to be watchin'
You tried with the diss, got you bare views with the vids
Tried to score, but you missed, ha!
I am the king of the drama
Cream of the crop, I'm the new age farmer

Puppet man, I don't stop it man
I give all the shit with no karma
I am untouchable, I got the rocket fuel
I am unstoppable, nothing impossible
Album impeccable, touring while winning as me
Years in the game and I do it so easily
"I'm a Celebrity" called for me
I said "No" to that shit, I don't need to eat dick
I'm self-made in this bitch
I'm like Raid when I spray
People die when I prey
People lie when I slay
Jack of all trades and I mastered it all as I win
Bring out the Perry and prove I'm a king

Q-Q-Quad
Ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha!
This shit's easy for me
All day, every day
Number one, ayy
Ayy, ayy
Ayy, ayy
Ayy
GG, motherfucker
