DECEMBER 12, 2020: SECOND MILLION MAGA MARCH

Video presented at the impeachment trial on Wednesday aimed to show, clockwise from top left, how former President Donald J. Trump spent months on a message; rioters inside the Capitol; rushing Mike Pence to safety; a Capitol security officer under attack.

Tighten Masks Or Double Up, C.D.C. Warns

By BONI CARYN RAHIN
Federal health officials on Wednesday urged Americans to keep their masks on and take steps to make them fit more snugly — or even to layer a cloth covering over a surgical mask — saying that new research had shown that masks greatly reduce the spread of the coronavirus.
Recent laboratory experiments found that viral transmission could be reduced by 96.5 percent if Americans wore snug surgical masks or a cloth-and-surgical-mask combination. In announcing the findings, Dr. Rochelle P. Walensky, director of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, pleaded with Americans to wear a "well-fitting mask."
"With cases, hospitalizations and deaths still very high, now is not the time to roll back mask requirements," she said. "The bottom line is this: Masks work, and they work when they have a good fit and are worn correctly."
Masking is now mandatory on federal property and on domestic and international transportation. Studies conducted in households in Beijing, hair salons in Missouri and aboard an aircraft carrier in

Millions of Coveted Face Coverings Await Buyers

By ANDREW JACOBS
A year into the pandemic, the disposable, virus-filtering N95 mask remains a coveted piece of protective gear. Continuing shortages have forced doctors and nurses to reuse their N95s, and ordinary Americans have scoured the Internet — mostly in vain — to get them.
But Luis Arguello Jr. has plenty of N95s for sale — 30 million of them, in fact, which his family-run business, DemeTech, manufactured in its factories in Miami. He simply can't find buyers.
After the pandemic exposed a huge need for protective equipment, and China closed its inventory to the world, DemeTech, a medical suture maker, dived into the mask business. The company invested tens of millions of dollars in new machinery and then navigated a nine-month federal approval process that allows the masks to be marketed.
But demand is so slack that Mr. Arguello is preparing to lay off some of the 1,300 workers he had hired to ramp up production.
"It's insane that we can't get these masks to the people who desperately need them," he said.
In one of the more confounding disconnects between the laws of supply and demand, many of the nearly two dozen small American companies that recently jumped into the business of making N95s are facing the abyss — unable to

DEMOCRATS DETAIL TRUMP BID TO FUEL SUPPORTERS' RAGE

Trial Depicts Riot as Intended Result — Security Video Seen for First Time

By NICHOLAS FANDOS
WASHINGTON — The House impeachment managers opened their prosecution of Donald J. Trump on Wednesday with a meticulous account of his campaign to overturn the election and goad supporters to join him, bringing its most violent spasms to life with never-before-seen security footage from the Jan. 6 Capitol riot.
Filling the Senate chamber with the profane screams of the attackers, images of police officers being brutalized, and near-miss moments in which Vice President Mike Pence and lawmakers came steps away from confronting a mob hunting them down, the prosecutors made an emotional case that Mr. Trump's election lies had directly endangered the heart of American democracy.
They played frantic police radio calls warning that "we've lost the line," body camera footage showing an officer pummeled with poles and fists on the West Front of the Capitol, and silent security tape from inside showing Mr. Pence, his family and members of the House and Senate racing to evacuate as the mob closed in, chanting: "Hang Mike Pence! Hang Mike Pence!"
All of it, the nine Democratic managers said, was the foreseeable and intended outcome of Mr. Trump's desperate attempts to cling to the presidency. Reaching back as far as last summer, they traced how he spent months cultivating not only the "big lie" that

It was ghastly to watch, but that was the point. A rampaging crowd threatening death as it hunted the vice president and speaker of the House. Senators spinning around midstep to run for their lives. Staff members barricading themselves in an office as attackers pounded on the door. Overwhelmed police officers retreating from rioters,

張其昀日記 上星期反省錄 1952.1.5

上星期反省錄

自本年度起應以日記為進德修業之基本，務須持之以恆，不可稍懈。

慎言語、節飲食，對於健康關係至大，宜時刻注意。

應開始研究辦事學，即辦公學，並以公共關係一書為發軔之始。

對亮疇先生有新認識，其謂「以政治手腕，循法律

途徑，達政治目的」，實可視為一般辦事處世之通則。渠謂對大法官會議應有控制權，對國大代表會應有否決權，誠為最高政治振衣得領之談。

總裁對台灣省黨部大為不滿，以其正式黨部之李友邦、張吉甫二委員之為匪諜，事先未能察覺。今後對此事務須提高警覺性，並應與有關部門取得聯繫。

本黨文化出版事業，余當自勉為一原動力，賓四對此盛加推許，以為其貢獻不在編著黨史之下，當盡心力以圖之。

政院、省府間終不能免於摩擦，黨的中央如何盡其應有之責任耶？

嚴（財政）部長報告條理井然，不可謂非持之有故言之成理者。
