Who do you know who's ready to go solar?

Imagine the power of clean energy changing lives, and you being a part of it!

As a Powur Solar Ambassador, your role is simple yet impactful: Connect your community to the clean energy future they deserve.

Here's the exciting part: For every homeowner you refer to your Powur consultant, you can earn $1,000 when their solar installation is completed.

Family, Friends, Neighbors and Coworkers. Old Classmates, Colleagues, or Acquaintances. Online Connections in Facebook groups, LinkedIn, or your Community Networks. Really, any homeowner that's dreading their next electric utility bill living in Powur's installation areas.

Our installation coverage spans many regions, so don't limit your imagination. If they own a home in a state we serve, they could be your next referral!
