20 REPORTER'S CERTIFICATE

1 (WHEREUPON, the court proceeding commenced.)

2 THE COURT: All right. We are here on the case
3 of Hanson v. Hanson, case 24-DR-1150, and we are 4 present on Zoom with Mr. Hanson, Mrs. Hanson, and 5 her attorney, Mr. Scott Davis. And before we get 6 going on the CMC to schedule these motions, I did 7 try to go through and figure out what's pending, but 8 I might need a little bit of assistance from you.
9 Mr. Davis?

10 MR. DAVIS: Yes, ma'am.

11 THE COURT: I did want to let you know that 12 because you were not at the motion to withdraw 13 hearing, which you're not required to come to that, 14 Mr. Hanson did start talking about the case a little 15 bit. Not meaning, he just talked because I talked.
16 I just want to let you know that the only thing of 17 substance that I believe was said that you need to 18 be privy to since you weren't there is that 19 Mr. Hanson believes that he had hired some pretty 20 strong lawyers and that when he consults with them, 21 he feels pretty good about what's going on. But 22 then after each lawyer has a conversation with you, 23 the lawyers come back with a wholly different 24 opinion. And please don't take issue with this, but 25 I think the lawyers that he's hired are much more

1 aggressive than what I've seen of you in the five 2 years I've been sitting on the bench. I did say
3 that. I don't know if you saw that in the writing.
4 I referred you to as a teddy bear type. That was 5 the only conversation taking place. The only
6 ex-parte conversation that I can recall that wasn't 7 just procedural.

8 Mr. Hanson, is there anything else from that 9 proceeding that you would like to say to Mr. Davis 10 so we have it on the record?

11 MR. HANSON: Yeah, Your Honor. I have some 12 questions about why he wasn't there when it was a 13 hearing about my due process and the entire basis of 14 my argument was that he's saying things to the 15 attorneys and that's the reason for them changing 16 their opinion on the case and for Ms. Hodz wanting 17 to withdraw right away. I'm not in a position where 18 I can go hire a third attorney because everything 19 I've seen suggests the same thing would happen.

20 I don't know why I don't get any answers, why 21 the Court doesn't inquire. There's no privilege 22 attached to that conversation. I waived all
23 privilege so that I'd be able to get the information 24 out in the open and move this forward. That was 25 reason for waiving privilege. You know, I just

1 don't understand why he went to the first hearing on 2 the motion for Ms. Hodz to withdraw. He asked the 3 Court if he needed to be there and said he didn't 4 plan on being there. I immediately said I need him 5 there. I sent multiple emails explaining that and 6 as I understand it, the Court didn't excuse him. He 7 was put on the notice, but he just doesn't show up 8 and I don't know how I'm getting due process if the 9 attorney, who I believe is responsible for my 10 attorneys withdrawing, isn't forced to even be 11 there.

12 THE COURT: He's not procedurally required to 13 attend a hearing on a motion to withdraw. I would 14 say probably 90 percent of the time the other side
15 doesn't come. So they just don't want to charge 16 their client to come to something that doesn't 17 concern them. I never -- I don't know really off 18 the top of my head whether you could have even 19 questioned him because I've never seen anybody do 20 that and I'm not sure how I would have addressed it.
21 I probably would have listened to the argument.

22 Most of the time when someone is withdrawing 23 the other side doesn't come as to save the 24 attorney -- I mean their client fees. So he was not 25 required to be there and I'm not aware of anything

1       that would mandate that he be there. I'm sure if 2       you requested it --

3               MR. HANSON: I did.

4               THE COURT: No. You were requesting it while 5       we were having the hearing. At that juncture I 6       can't do anything about it.

7               MR. HANSON: No. I requested it before the 8       hearing, Your Honor. There was an email to your 9       assistant where Mr. Davis told her there's a hearing
10      next week. Let us know if you need us to attend. I 11      don't plan on being there. I immediately said I 12      need you there. You're the crux of my argument for 13      why there's no good cause for them to withdraw 14      because it's nothing I'm doing. I've waived any 15      privilege. The attorneys can say anything they 16      want. There's no alternative explanation for why
17      Ms. Hodz withdrew other than what I said Mr. Davis' 18      conversations. No one has disputed anything I've 19      said and there's no explanation.

20              So it seems like there's definitely something 21      there and it wasn't investigated and it puts me in a 22      position where I don't know if I can go out and hire
23      another attorney or if it's just going to be a waste 24      of more money and more time.

25              THE COURT: Well, I can assure you, even if you

1       waived privilege, Mr. Davis wouldn't have been able 2       to discuss what he discussed with your lawyers
3       because his client, I'm assuming, didn't waive
4       privilege. So that puts him in an interesting 5       position.

6               MR. HANSON: Well, if he talks to my attorney, 7       there's no privilege that attaches there, is there?

8               THE COURT: Well, I'm sure when Mr. Davis is 9       talking to your attorney is talking about his 10      client's information.

11              MR. HANSON: It's waived when he talks to the 12      attorney, right? You can't tell the other side 13      something and say this is privileged from your 14      client.

15              THE COURT: Attorneys a lot of times work
16      together to get things done. I'm sure, once 17      attorneys get together and talk, they do the best 18      they can to talk about legal perspectives and to 19      tone down what their clients are feeling so they can 20      get a resolution. He was not required to be there.
21      If you can find something that required him to be 22      there, you're free to file a motion, but I don't 23      know of anything that required him to be there.

24              The other thing, with respect to my judicial 25      assistant, I told her to be a little lenient with

1       you, but you're getting pretty close. If not, 2       you've already crossed the line. She's supposed to 3       be for procedural issues only. She gave me that 4       lengthy email the other day. I responded to all of 5       it. She printed it for me. I wrote all the 6       responses back so that you would have every single 7       one of your questions answered. So I have been a
8       little lenient with you to make you feel comfortable 9       and answer your questions. She's there for 10      procedural scheduling. If you have anything else, 11      then we have to set a hearing and we have to discuss 12      it in this manner.

13               So today we are here just to see what motions
14      were filed by January 6th so that I can lump them 15      together and get them scheduled. Mr. Davis, what 16      motions have you filed as of January 6th?

17               MR. DAVIS: I'm going to work backwards in 18      time, Your Honor, unless the Court would prefer 19      otherwise.

20               THE COURT: Nope.

21               MR. DAVIS: On December 13, 2024, I filed a
22      motion to compel discovery. That's Document Index 23      No. 67.

24               THE COURT: All right. What else?

25               MR. DAVIS: No, ma'am. It looks like the Court

1 is writing things down. I wanted to give you time.

2 THE COURT: I got it.

3 MR. DAVIS: On December 13, 2024, I also filed 4 a motion to appoint Guardian ad Litem. That's 5 Document Index No. 69.

6 THE COURT: Haven't I done that?

7 MR. DAVIS: No, ma'am.

8 THE COURT: Yes, I have. Oh, hold on.

9 MR. DAVIS: No, ma'am, you have not.

10 THE COURT: Wrong case pulled up. Motion for 11 GAL. All right. What number is that?

12 MR. DAVIS: That's 69.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead.

14 MR. DAVIS: I filed a motion for default, but 15 then Mr. Hanson filed an answer. So I am not 16 pursuing that. On December 13th I also filed a 17 motion for psychological evaluation or examination
18 of the husband. That's Document Index No. 77.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 MR. DAVIS: And my last motion to schedule
21 would be a motion for temporary relief and I filed 22 that kind of sliding in at the deadline on 23 January 6th, 2025, and that's Document Index 96.

24 THE COURT: And what's the basis for the temp 25 relief?

1 MR. DAVIS: It's timesharing, child support.
2 She's pled for unequal parenting time and there's 3 also a child support issue.

4 THE COURT: Okay. And Mr. Hanson, what did you 5 file?

6 MR. HANSON: Well, Your Honor, some of it goes 7 back to the August hearings. Actually neither of 8 the August hearings are resolved. The August 9 motions for mandatory disclosures, they're still 10 lacking despite the October 28, 2024 order requiring 11 them to respond within 10 days. It's a very, very 12 simple --

13 THE COURT: Let's stop there. Let's stop 14 there. What docket is that?

15 MR. HANSON: The motion for contempt and 16 enforcement or the motion to compel mandatory 17 disclosures, Your Honor?

18 THE COURT: We're going to do one at a time.
19 Which one would you like to do first?

20 MR. HANSON: Well, the motion for contempt and 21 enforcement is at Docket No. 84.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Are you telling me it was 23 set for hearing and there's an order and they didn't 24 comply?

25 MR. HANSON: Correct. They slowly trickled

1 some records out to put off me being able to enforce 2 it. Your Honor, I don't know if you're aware of 3 this, but there's 15 -- I believe it's 15 now 4 different, separate actions from Mr. Davis that have 5 all resulted in significant delays. They're really 6 getting severe in terms of what I think is just 7 extremely egregious just in terms of the discovery 8 violations. I'd like to get --

9 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Hanson, are we 10 talking about Docket No. 84?

11 MR. HANSON: Yes.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Has that been set for 13 hearing, Mr. Davis?

14 MR. HANSON: It's set for today.

15 MR. DAVIS: 84?

16 THE COURT: It's set for hearing today. It's 17 not being heard today because this is only a 18 scheduling.

19 MR. DAVIS: While we're talking about that,
20 because he set it for hearing, I had to file a 21 motion to strike and a request for fees, but -- I 22 did set that for hearing because Mr. Hanson set his 23 motions for hearing, but I do agree 84 has not been 24 heard by the Court.

25 THE COURT: Okay. And we agree, Mr. Hanson,

1       that's a discovery motion, correct? That's all 2       you're looking for is discovery.

3               MR. HANSON: In parts.

4               THE COURT: No long dissertation. What is that 5       motion seeking besides discovery?

6               MR. HANSON: Seeking them to comply with 7       mandatory disclosures and I don't remember if I
8       asked for attorney's fees and costs in that, but I 9       think I did.

10              THE COURT: You did, but that's okay. We're 11       not doing that. What's the next one you filed that 12       has not been heard?

13              MR. HANSON: It is a motion for clarification
14       on the Court's order, which would be document -- I 15       believe 91 is my motion. It relates to I filed the 16       motion for clarification before the order was 17       entered on the Chase subpoenas. I later filed 18       something saying I wanted to treat it as a motion 19       for rehearing if I needed to do that. But yeah.
20       That's Document Number --

21              THE COURT: I got it. No. 91.

22              MR. HANSON: Right.

23              THE COURT: So motion for clarification deals 24       with subpoenas, which is also discovery.

25              MR. DAVIS: The Court held a hearing on

1 subpoena and ruled in the wife's favor. So it's 2 his motion for clarification on that issue.

3 THE COURT: Hold on. Okay. All right. What's 4 the next one, sir?

5 MR. HANSON: That may be the only actual 6 motions that I have pending. I've got more that I'm 7 working on. Probably four more that I have in 8 motion, but I was sick for a month starting the day 9 after I had to stay up all night to prepare for that 10 hearing on my attorney dropping me on a day's 11 notice. You know, I can file the medical notes if I 12 need to, but everything is just going to take me 13 more time now with as sick as I was.

14 THE COURT: Okay. So do you want to go ahead 15 and get these outstanding ones set and then, when 16 you file the other ones, you can set them?

17 MR. HANSON: Well, Your Honor, I have a major 18 problem if opposing counsel, by having all these 19 delays that he's never had to answer for once, he 20 keeps doing them. If he's going to get his 21 obstructive motions that he's filed all on the same 22 day that my attorney was taken [sic] away over my 23 objection on the same calendar with my discovery, 24 which is the only issue any of this is happening, 25 I'm going to have a major problem with that because

1       it's just rewarding bad behavior. It's outrageous 2       that he's filed motions.

3               The Guardian ad Litem, Your Honor, is so 4       offensive to me because no one has ever said a 5       single negative thing about my kid or my parenting, 6       but they don't want me to get this discovery and 7       that's why they're doing it. I'm just frustrated by 8       the Court's lack of interest in helping me with this 9       when I'm making very clear allegations of 10      inappropriate conduct that's damaging my kids.

11             I filed something earlier today drawing the 12      Court's attention to all of the things that I've 13      pleaded with the Court for help for. It seems like 14      whatever Mr. Davis wants to have happen happens.

15             THE COURT: I don't have a lack of interest in 16      your case, Mr. Hanson, but I have to follow the law
17      and right now your two agreements are in full force 18      and effect until we get to the final hearing unless 19      you ask me to look at them before and you haven't 20      asked me. I don't know how much more I can hint to 21      you. If you want me to address their validity now, 22      file a motion.

23             MR. HANSON: I want you to address opposing 24      counsel's conduct now that's been before your Court.

25             THE COURT: What conduct?

1 MR. DAVIS: Judge, I've had about enough --

2 MR. HANSON: It's an easy list.

3 MR. DAVIS: Mr. Hanson, I'm also allowed to 4 address the Court.

5 MR. HANSON: The Judge asked me a question,
6 sir. The Judge asked me a question.

7 THE COURT: Mr. Davis --

8 MR. HANSON: May I answer her question, sir.

9 THE COURT: Mr. Davis, Mr. Hanson, no. You
10 don't -- if you have an issue with his conduct, you 11 can file a motion and I will handle it. You can't 12 just show up to a CMC.

13 MR. HANSON: I have.

14 THE COURT: All right. Where's the motion?

15 MR. HANSON: So --

16 THE COURT: Where's the motion?

17 MR. HANSON: It's Document 84 is for contempt
18 and enforcement for an attorney that is in blatant 19 violation of an order and is trying to put it off 20 farther so he can remain in violation of the order 21 longer when he doesn't even need to get documents.
22 He just needs to fix the pleading.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Davis, your --

24 MR. DAVIS: Yes, ma'am.

25 THE COURT: Your objection that you just

1 filed --

2 MR. DAVIS: I'm sorry, Your Honor. Your voice
3 is going in and out.

4 THE COURT: You filed an objection on the 16th, 5 Document 101, the request to produce.

6 MR. DAVIS: Yes, ma'am.

7 THE COURT: So when was that request to 8 produce? Is that part of his motion for contempt?

9 MR. DAVIS: No, ma'am. That's his second 10 request to produce where he's asking for things like 11 communications with my client, my law firm's 12 metadata, and all kinds of other things that he 13 shouldn't be asking for.

14 MR. HANSON: Metadata is discoverable by the 15 rules. It's specifically in the rules of civil 16 procedure.

17 MR. DAVIS: I'm not a party to the proceeding.

18 MR. HANSON: But your client is and she's the 19 one that provided you the records that you slowly 20 trickled in to put things off for me, dragging this 21 out.

22 MR. DAVIS: Judge, the Court granted
23 Mr. Hanson's motion for contempt; yet everything he 24 files with the Court is a continued obsession with 25 mandatory disclosure. It's nothing less. He's

1 completely obsessed with the discovery issues in 2 this case. He can't stop the obsession. He can't 3 stop filing things associated with the obsession.
4 He can't stop emailing me associated with his 5 obsession. I'm very close to filing a motion with 6 the Court asking the Court to limit his contact with 7 me because he just can't stop.

8 MR. HANSON: File the records, please. You're 9 saying conclusory things and the Court doesn't have 10 any of that before it. File what I've done that's 11 so bad, sir.

12 THE COURT: All right. I'm going to set 13 Mrs. Hanson's motion to compel, No. 67, along with 14 Mr. Hanson's December 18th, No. 84, discovery on 15 mandatory disclosure and his 91, motion for 16 clarification of the subpoenas, and I'm also going 17 to set the objection to the second request to 18 produce all together because they all go to 19 discovery. Mr. Davis, how much do you need on your 20 side?

21 MR. DAVIS: For all of them?

22 THE COURT: Yes. Just those four. Just the 23 discovery.

24 MR. DAVIS: Probably 45 minutes. Maybe less.

25 THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, how much time would you

1 request?

2 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, is it going to be an 3 evidentiary hearing where I can have people testify?

4 THE COURT: Not to discovery. I mean, if you
5 want to bring someone to testify, but I don't know 6 who would testify as to the discovery requests that 7 you want.

8 MR. HANSON: My confusion, Judge, is I've 9 alleged things that under the case law require you
10 to look at the reasonableness of the agreement due 11 to the lack of disclosure. I don't know if I have 12 to prove the lack of disclosure ahead of time or 13 what, but there's no --

14 THE COURT: Show me where you filed a motion 15 that challenges the validity of the prenup or 16 post -- it's not really a postnup, but I guess it is 17 a postnup. Show me where you've asked for relief 18 under either of those agreements.

19 MR. HANSON: In an amended petition or 20 amended -- response to amended petition for 21 dissolution. I believe it's Document 80. Document 22 79.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, I know you don't 24 practice family law, but in family law petitions are 25 heard in final hearing. If you want any relief

1 prior to the final hearing, you have to file a 2 motion. Nobody's filed a motion to have me look at 3 the validity of either of those agreements. Right 4 now both agreements are in place until the final 5 hearing. If you'd like for me to look at them 6 before, so we can make sure this train stays on the 7 track, I'd be happy to, but you haven't filed
8 anything that allows me to do that. I have put it 9 in writing. I have told you at hearings. I have 10 repeatedly told you. You can't litigate the 11 petition, the counterpetition, the supplemental 12 petition until we get to the final hearing.

13 So if you want to wait until we get to the 14 final hearing and challenge it, it's fine, but right 15 now --

16 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I'm sure -- I don't 17 know if you want me to look through it, but I'm sure 18 in some of my motions or responses I've asked you to 19 look at the agreement and part of my issue is that I
20 shouldn't have to make a decision on whether to void 21 it or not yet. The reasonableness inquiry is 22 necessary because of the lack of disclosure. So I 23 should be able to get the discovery.

24 THE COURT: No, sir. No, sir. A contract is a
25 contract. You have a binding contract between you

1 and your wife. If you want it to be vacated, set
2 aside, or voided, you need to research how you do
3 that and file the appropriate motions, Mr. Hanson.
4 I sit here in a very good position because I was a 5 contract litigator and a family law litigator for 6 30 years. So I know that law inside and out and 7 right now you have a binding, two binding contracts, 8 with your wife, and if you think they're not valid 9 or you want me to set them aside, void them, you 10 have to get it in front of me, sir.

11 I told you this at the hearings and I even put 12 it in that email for you. I even put in the order, 13 at this juncture, I'm not ruling on the validity of 14 the agreement because no one's asked me to. You 15 need to file a motion. You can't just bury it in 16 there. You need to file a motion that asks me to 17 look at the validity of those agreements and what 18 you want me to do with them.

19 I don't know if you want me to set one aside.
20 I don't know if you want me to set both aside. I
21 don't know if it's because of fraud or duress. I 22 don't know if it's -- I don't know because you 23 haven't filed a motion.

24 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, it's in the motions.
25 I can point you to where all of that information is

1           because that is in the motions.

2           THE COURT: Show me. I want you to show me a 3 motion that you've asked me to challenge the 4 validity of the agreement.

5           MR. HANSON: Absolutely.

6           THE COURT: I'm just telling you right now. I 7 have three more hearings that go to 6:00. We are at 8 5:00. So I need you to do that now please.

9           MR. HANSON: I'm looking for it.

10          THE COURT: I'll make it easier for you. Look 11 at any document you filed that's not a petition and 12 look at your wherefore clauses because that's where 13 it has to be. If you don't have a wherefore clause
14 asking me what to do with those agreements, I can't 15 do anything.

16          MR. HANSON: I haven't gone through all the 17 motions yet, but the one thing I've seen is 18 "granting respondent all other further relief the 19 Court deems just and necessary". I look at the 20 substance --

21          THE COURT: I know that, but I don't know what 22 you want me to do. Do you want me to vacate it? Do 23 you want me to void it? Do you want me to set it 24 aside and why? So I can't possibly make a 25 determination because I don't know. Do you want

1 both of them set aside? Do you want one of them set 2 aside?

3 MR. HANSON: What I'm telling you, Judge, is 4 all of that is in the motions. You know, I'm just 5 looking at the wherefore clause now and I do see 6 that --

7 THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, I just look at every 8 single --

9 MR. HANSON: I'm not understanding.

10 THE COURT: I just looked at every single one 11 of your wherefore clauses and you've not asked me to 12 do anything or make any determination with respect
13 to the agreement. I need to know each agreement 14 what you want me to do and what's the legal basis.

15 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I know that you're 16 short on time. Will Mr. Davis have to answer for 17 any of his behavior today?

18 THE COURT: He hasn't done anything today.

19 MR. HANSON: I was starting to list -- you 20 asked me what he had done. I was starting to list.

21 THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, that's not appropriate.
22 You need to file a motion. I want everything in a 23 motion.

24 MR. HANSON: You asked me a question. I was 25 answering the question.

1           THE COURT: I know. When Mr. Davis went to 2 object, I don't think that was appropriate for me to 3 ask you. I need you -- he doesn't know. You can't 4 just come on Zoom and start attacking him. If he's 5 done something unethical or wrong, I will take care
6 of it. File a motion.

7           MR. HANSON: It's in the motions, Your Honor, 8 and you know what. The next motion I'm going to 9 file is a motion to transfer proceedings to a 10 different venue and in the alternative, a motion for 11 recusal. I do have questions for you about your 12 relationship with Ms. Hanson. At the first hearing 13 you and Ms. Hanson were talking about my children's 14 names. You knew their names at the first hearing.
15 They're the same names --

16          THE COURT: I can look on the docket and review
17 everything. I never met your wife.

18          MR. HANSON: This is the first hearing. You 19 guys practiced together. You were in the same area 20 of practice. You told me that at the first hearing.

21          THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, I can look right now, 22 when I look up on your case, the kids' names are 23 right there on my docket.

24          MS. HANSON: I've never worked with Judge
25 Ayers. I've never been in front of her.

1           MR. HANSON: Your Honor, the first Zoom hearing
2           that I came on to you and Mrs. Hanson were talking 3           and there's nothing mentioned about any recusal and 4           I didn't have any concerns about it. But what I 5           have concern about now is how much I've asked for 6           help, my due process. I had to stay up all night
7           for a hearing I wasn't available for. Attorneys
8           have an issue. There's no ethical problem. Nothing 9           I've done wrong. It's going to inconvenience me.
10          Inconvenience my family. They get a hearing in one 11          day.

12          THE COURT: And I agree with you. I agree with 13          you and I had a rehearing on it. If anybody has a 14          basis for a motion to recuse me, it would be 15          Mrs. Hanson because I have definitely towed the line 16          with giving you assistance, both in writing and in 17          court. I could have answered every one of your 18          questions and say I can't give you legal advice.
19          Mr. Davis has given me a little leniency to assist 20          you. I just told you how to do your whole case.
21          You need to file a motion.

22          MR. HANSON: I disagree with your assessments
23          of how this has gone. So I'll file my motion.

24          THE COURT: You're free to file anything you 25          want and I will take a look at it.

1           MR. HANSON: If I could get a hearing in front
2 of the chief judge, I'd like to go in front of the 3 chief judge.

4           THE COURT: You're free to write the chief 5 judge.

6           MR. HANSON: Okay. I don't know what my 7 options are for requesting a hearing in front of the 8 chief judge on motion to transfer venue and in the 9 alternative, recusal, but I'll do the research.

10          THE COURT: A transfer of venue is then you 11 will leave Hillsborough County, which I don't 12 understand how you have any basis to leave
13 Hillsborough County. If you want to recuse me, you 14 can file a motion.

15          MR. HANSON: Attorneys are doing things and no 16 one is asking questions about what you're doing.

17          THE COURT: I told you you have to file a 18 motion. You have to file a motion.

19          MR. HANSON: I was objecting to her withdrawing 20 on a specific basis that the reason for withdrawing 21 is opposing counsel's conduct. It couldn't be more 22 on point that that's what I was asking the Court to 23 do is help me get an answer on what's going on so I 24 can decide if it's worth getting another attorney or 25 if it's just going to be another few thousand

1 dollars and two, three months of conflict and stress
2 and I just have no answers about that. And I don't 3 understand the -- calling Mr. Davis a teddy bear 4 when he's made my life hell for seven months. I've 5 put that in front of the Court.

6 It doesn't seem like a fair process, Judge. I 7 don't want this to be dramatic. You'll see in my 8 pleadings I say I just want to move this forward. I 9 don't want to file for fraud. Go through years of 10 text messages and emails. I want to move forward as 11 amicably as we can. It's my children involved here.

12 THE COURT: You have to follow the law,
13 Mr. Hanson. The law is if you sign an agreement, 14 it's in full force and effect unless you both agree 15 that it's not or you ask me to look at the validity 16 of it and you tell me the basis, the legal basis.
17 So we're going to follow the law, sir.

18 All right. The first opening I have for the 19 discovery motions would be the 24th of February at 20 3:30.

21 MR. DAVIS: I'm available.

22 THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, are you available?

23 MR. HANSON: I need to find my phone calendar.

24 THE COURT: Just to clear the record, it's a 25 motion to disqualify. I recuse. You disqualify.

1 Just to make sure you can file the right motion.

2 MR. HANSON: I imagine at 3:30 -- can you tell 3 me what day of the week it is?

4 THE COURT: It's a Monday.

5 MR. HANSON: Is there any chance we can do it 6 at 4:00 or 4:30?

7 THE COURT: I have to be somewhere at 5:15. So 8 I wanted to give you plenty of time.

9 MR. HANSON: Mrs. Hanson, do you know if we can 10 drop Hope off at gymnastics that early?

11 THE COURT: I can do late on any other Monday, 12 but not that Monday.

13 MS. HANSON: I would assume that the gym is 14 open.

15 THE COURT: I can do the 17th at 4:30.

16 MR. HANSON: Okay. Yeah. I'm sure that works,
17 Your Honor. I don't know without my calendar.

18 THE COURT: Mr. Davis, does the 17th at 4:30
19 via Zoom, does that work?

20 MR. DAVIS: Yes, ma'am. Did you say that's by 21 Zoom?

22 THE COURT: Yes. All right. That will be the 23 motion to compel, No. 67, the objection, No. 104, 24 husband's discovery mandatory disclosure, 84, and 25 his motion for clarification on 91.

1 MR. DAVIS: That's the 17th to make sure I have 2 that right?

3 THE COURT: Yes. The 17th at 4:30.

4 MR. DAVIS: Yes, ma'am.

5 THE COURT: And then the appointment of the GAL
6 and psych exam together. That one I will be doing 7 in person. I won't be able to do that until 8 April 3rd at 1:30.

9 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, assuming I get any 10 discovery out of the hearing in February, I may 11 need -- I don't know if the issues will overlap.

12 THE COURT: I didn't think your discovery -- I 13 thought your discovery was all financial related.

14 MR. HANSON: I thought of it as I was speaking.
15 Maybe they don't overlap.

16 THE COURT: Right. All right. And then for 17 the motion -- I can actually -- on the 3rd, I can do 18 the GAL psych exam and the temp relief.

19 MR. DAVIS: I think it makes sense.

20 THE COURT: Yeah. I'll do 1:30 to 3:30 in 21 person April 3rd.

22 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, just for the record, I 23 would like more time than that. The GAL is the most 24 concerning thing that's come up and I've researched 25 it and I understand some of what I need to do as far

1 as the legwork, but, you know, I don't know how.

2 THE COURT: You need more time on that day or 3 later in the year?

4 MR. HANSON: Later in the year. I need more 5 time to get the statements that I need and I got to 6 research whether people do depositions or not. I 7 saw that there's affidavits, but I got to get that 8 right. I cannot have that one go wrong.

9 THE COURT: What's the current timesharing that 10 you guys are having?

11 MR. HANSON: It's always been 50/50. We've 12 never had any disputes about that until -- I believe 13 it was October when they filed for that.

14 THE COURT: All right. Are you currently 15 having 50/50?

16 MR. HANSON: Yes.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Davis, response?

18 MR. DAVIS: Your Honor, we really don't want to 19 go two months and 10 days -- Mr. Hanson said to the 20 Court multiple times that he wants to move the case
21 forward, but now he doesn't. We really don't want 22 to go more than two months and 10 days out. Your 23 Honor, Mr. Hanson's response, which is at Document 24 Index No. 22 calls his own mental health into 25 question where he says he has, and I quote, "severe

1        mental, physical, and emotional conditions." He 2        also says he is, "undergoing invasive treatments for 3        both physical and psychiatric issues." He's called 4        his own mental health into question. I don't know 5        how he needs more than two months to prepare for a 6        hearing where he's filed something with the Court, 7        on his own, calling his mental health into question.

8                THE COURT: And Mr. Hanson, you stated to me at 9        the hearings too that you're struggling, sir. I 10       think we're going to go ahead and set that for 11       April 3rd at 1:30 to 3:30.

12               MR. HANSON: I need to respond to what 13       Mr. Davis said. It's pretty frustrating to be 14       shamed in a courtroom for being honest about some 15       struggles I'm having and a difficult time by the 16       attorney who is dragging this out intentionally, and 17       he hasn't had to answer to it. He just keeps 18       getting to do what he likes to do and nobody is 19       saying boo about all of these unethical acts, the 20       four-month delay, not doing something he stipulated 21       to do. I would like to hear one allegation of 22       anything I've done less than perfect with my kids 23       the last year. I would like to hear one allegation 24       of one thing that's not perfect about how my kids
25       are doing. He's shaming me and ignores the fact

1       that my kids are as healthy as any that exist and 2       it's all a game to him where he wants to get 3       leverage to push me away from the financial 4       discovery. And my attorney told me as much. She 5       told me that before they would even send more 6       documents related to the mandatory disclosure, 7       they're already under an order to provide, I had to 8       agree to their holiday time schedule.

9               MR. DAVIS: That is absolutely not true.

10              MR. HANSON: Well, that was what's said to me.

11              THE COURT: Mr. Hanson, we're going to be 12       hearing those motions and the temp. We're going to 13       be hearing the appointment of the GAL, No. 69, the 14       motion for psychological exam, No. 77, motion for 15       temp relief, No. 96, on April 3rd at 1:30 so we can 16       keep this headed that way.

17              MR. HANSON: Again, I just need to note that I 18       think that's further violation of due process to 19       force me to do something that quickly, but just for 20       the record.

21              THE COURT: All right. Duly noted. All right.
22       Anything else, Mr. Hanson?

23              MR. HANSON: I've got a lot of things, Your 24       Honor, but I don't think you're going to allow me to 25       hear them. So I'm not going to offer them.

1 THE COURT: No. Because, Mr. Hanson, you have 2 to file a motion and it has to be noticed.

3 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, you understand that 4 the core of my motion that we've had two hearings on 5 is Mr. Davis's conduct. That's the core of my 6 pleading.

7 THE COURT: Then you need to file a motion 8 regarding his conduct so he knows before he gets 9 here what you're alleging, so he has proper ability
10 to defend. Do you want to hear that when we hear 11 discovery?

12 MR. HANSON: Will you do me a favor, Your 13 Honor? Will you go to Docket No. 84 for me, please?

14 THE COURT: Okay. That's not noticed for 15 today, but I'll be happy to look at it.

16 MR. HANSON: I did notice it for today.

17 THE COURT: You improperly noticed it because I 18 sent you an email telling you all we were going to 19 do today is schedule all the pending motions. That 20 was not scheduled for today.

21 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, you also told me we 22 would push the contempt motion through very quickly
23 at the hearing in December. So I just don't 24 understand how someone can be in violation of an 25 order.

1 THE COURT: What document do you want me to 2 look at, Mr. Hanson?

3 MR. DAVIS: I think he said 84.

4 THE COURT: We already said 84. 84 is going to 5 be heard on 2/17 at 4:30. Let's go to your 6 wherefore.

7 MR. DAVIS: Your Honor, I heard the Court say 8 4:30. I just --

9 THE COURT: No. 2/17 at 3:30. Hold on. No.
10 It was 4:30. I apologize. I wrote it down wrong.

11 MR. DAVIS: I just didn't want to notice it 12 wrong, Judge.

13 THE COURT: No. So in your 84, which we set 14 for the 17th, you don't ask me for any relief with 15 respect to Mr. Davis's conduct, but if you want to 16 file a motion asking me to address Mr. Davis's 17 conduct, I will give you time to do that and we'll 18 hear it on the 17th.

19 MR. HANSON: Your Honor, I wanted you to allow 20 me to keep my attorney because of Mr. Davis's 21 conduct, but you didn't ask any questions about what 22 happened during the conversation.

23 THE COURT: There's no legal basis for me to 24 require your attorney to stay on the case. I had 25 two hearings on it. You need to give me a legal

1 basis on why Mrs. Hodz should have stayed on the 2 case and I told you the only thing I know of is if 3 you had an imminent trial scheduled, I would have 4 been able to require her to stay.

5 MR. HANSON: What if the reason is that 6 Mr. Davis told her that he was going to make it hell 7 for her to be on the case if she stayed on it and 8 it's going to be the worst case ever?

9 MR. DAVIS: I would never do that and I'd 10 love --

11 MR. HANSON: Let me ask the question then. Why
12 wasn't the question asked? Can I depose Ms. Hodz 13 and figure out what was said precisely?

14 THE COURT: It's your prerogative, but there's 15 nothing -- I can't force Ms. Hodz to stay on a case 16 that she doesn't want to stay on and you also stated 17 you were very unhappy with her services. Why would 18 I have you two together?

19 MR. HANSON: I wanted her help, Your Honor, and 20 if the reason is that the work is going to be harder 21 than she thought it was going to be, would that be 22 good cause to withdraw?

23 THE COURT: No. I can't make her stay on the 24 case if she doesn't want to stay on the case.

25 MR. HANSON: She can withdraw if it was just

1 harder than she thought. Even though she knew my 2 objective ahead of time and knew all the facts, it
3 was just harder than I want.

4 THE COURT: She could object because you wore
5 blue to the hearing and she doesn't like the color 6 blue.

7 MR. HANSON: Yeah. That just doesn't seem 8 consistent with what my research was.

9 THE COURT: She didn't feel like you guys were 10 a good fit. She didn't think she could do a good 11 job for you. She wants to withdraw. There's 12 nothing I can do to have her stay on the case 13 unless, for instance, we were set for trial the next 14 week, we were ready to go, and she was going to 15 leave you hanging. Then I could look at it. That's 16 a tough one. She has the right to withdraw whenever 17 she wants to withdraw.

18 I just had someone do a withdraw the other day 19 and actually the lawyer is here today because he got 20 accused of coming to Court with a wrinkled jacket
21 and a shirt not tucked in and I agreed.

22 MR. HANSON: I don't follow. I don't follow,
23 but I'm not a family law lawyer.

24 THE COURT: That counts in any court,
25 Mr. Hanson. If someone wants to withdraw and you

1 don't have a legal basis for me to keep them on,
2 they have the right to withdraw.

3 All right. We are set for the two hearings.
4 Mr. Davis, will you notice them? Did you want to 5 notice yours, Mr. Hanson, or did you want Mr. Davis 6 to include them all on the notice of hearing?

7 MR. HANSON: He can include them all and I'll 8 look. I'm going to file motions.

9 THE COURT: Look and make sure all of yours are 10 on there and his are on there and I'll see you guys 11 in a couple of weeks. Mr. Hanson, if you file a 12 motion to disqualify of me, under the rule, you need 13 to send it to my JA.

14 MR. HANSON: Can I do the transfer of venue and 15 the disqualify in the same motion, in the 16 alternative?

17 THE COURT: I can't give you legal advice. It 18 would probably be easier if you did them separate 19 just because they both have to be addressed, but I 20 don't know. You can -- you can -- no matter what 21 you do I'm going to address it.

22 MR. HANSON: Okay.

23 THE COURT: All right. Everyone, have a good 24 day. See you in a couple weeks.

25 MR. DAVIS: Thank you, Your Honor. Have a good

1 evening.
