The plaintiff based her claim on the ground that the frog was not properly protected.

Sandusky Kellogg, one of the oldest and most active of Northville's farmers, fell through a trap door in the grain elevator at Novi Wednesday afternoon, striking on the back of his head and fracturing his skull. He died at 5 o'clock Thursday morning. At the time of the accident he was visiting a friend and went down to see the elevator. He knew about the trap door, but forgot about it. Judge Carpenter has refused to grant a mandamus compelling this village council to accept the liquor bonds of Geo. Rattenbury. The case will now be taken to the supreme court. Inasmuch as all villages in Michigan are incorporated under one and the same act, it means, if Judge Carpenter's decision is sustained, that any village in the state can prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors in any saloon or hotel within its corporate limits. The outcome of the case will be looked forward to with much interest.—[Northville Record.]

A recent number of The Crusader, published at Chicago, contains a half-tone and sketch of Walter Casterton, who is now the president of the Wisconsin Senior Loyal Temperance Legion. From the sketch we make the following extract:

The representative of this sketch, Walter J. Casterton, was born in Milford, Oakland Co., Mich., Dec. 2, 1879. He was a very active and mischievous child, not infrequently committing daring adventures common to those children exhibiting large bumps of destructibility. Careful training at home and in the public schools of Milford and Detroit, Mich., toned him down to a well-meaning and conscientious young man. At the age of ten his voice attracted so much attention that the business men of lower Main street, Milford, said they could always tell when Walter entered the upper end, a distance of four blocks. At the age of twelve he commenced his career as a newsboy in the Michigan metropolis. He soon made many friends, and by dint of hard work succeeded in controlling the newspaper trade of the trains arriving at and leaving Milwaukee Junction, making the different newspaper companies rivals for his services. Being generous to a fault, he saved little and spent much, so that at the end of four years he had only his clothes to show for his work. The financial panic of 1893 caused the loss of his home, his father and mother moved to Racine, Wis., in 1895 to live with his brother, E. L. Casterton. He soon followed and entered the E. L. Casterton Commercial College as a student. He rose rapidly and is now an instructor in that institution. From early youth to the present time, he has always taken an active part in temperance work. He secured nine seals from a Detroit L. T. L. society; also won first prize at contest for the writing of the best essay on "Tobacco," containing not less than 500 words.

Headache for Forty Years.

For forty years I suffered from sick headache. A year ago I began using Celestine King. The result was gratifying and surprising, my headaches leaving at once. The headaches used to return every seventh day, but, thanks to Celestine King, I have had but one headache in the last eleven months. I know that Celestine King will help others.—Mrs. John D. ROBBED THE GRAVE.

A startling incident of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, and continually in back and sleep, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters,' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents a bottle, at J. S. Hewitt's Drug Store.

First musician—She has made a name for herself.

Second musician—Yes, I see she spells it Ydith.—[Minneapolis Tribune.]

During the winter of 1897 Mr. James Reed, one of the leading citizens and merchants of Clay, Clay Co., W. Va., struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniment and two and a half gallons of whiskey in bathing it, but nothing gave any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought about a complete cure in a week's time and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. Pain Balm is unequalled for sprains, bruises and rheumatism. For sale by T. O. Bennett & Co., druggists.

What Do You Pay For Coffee?

That's a practical question! Are you paying too much? If you're paying a high price, you're probably paying as much for a name as for the coffee.

Arbuckles' Coffee is a plain, substantial coffee with an excellent aroma and delicate flavor, sold in a substantial way at an honest price. You don't want better than good coffee, do you? You can't afford to pay twice the price that's necessary, can you? Then why not get Arbuckles? Get right down to the coffee question and settle it now. By buying many millions of pounds we buy the best of many large plantations at a low price. We sell it to you at a low price because we would rather sell millions of pounds at a low profit than a thousand pounds at a big profit.

Arbuckles' Roasted Coffee

is the daily beverage on millions of tables. Why not on yours? There's an additional consideration in the many substantial and useful articles that go with the coffee. Ask your grocer for it. He'll tell you all about it. If he endeavors to substitute an imitation, insist on getting the genuine Arbuckles—or go elsewhere.
