

English Honors Program Application
Due Friday, March 31, 2017

Name: _____

Student ID#: _____

Major(s): _____

Cumulative GPA: _____ English GPA: _____

Email Address: _____

Proposed Area of Study or Creative Genre: _____

Coursework Related to your Proposed Area:

Course #	Title	Instructor
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____

Name of Advisor (English Department Faculty Member): _____

Statement of Intent (2 pages max): Outline your goals for the thesis project. Describe the materials and issues you plan to explore. Explain how your training as an English Major informs your project.

Summer Reading List (2 pages max): Provide a list of primary and secondary texts that you plan to read and study before your prospectus is due in the Fall.

Writing Sample: For literary scholars, your writing sample (5-7 pages) should demonstrate both intellectual curiosity and advanced critical engagement, as well as some familiarity with the methods of contemporary literary scholarship. For creative writers, your writing sample (4-6 poems or 10-15 pages of prose) should demonstrate a command of your preferred genre.

Please return these materials with an unofficial copy of your transcript to:

Professor Judith Brown
Director of English Honors
Ballantine Hall 442