Series History: FSW Leads 20-2

GAME PREVIEW:

The two hottest teams in the Citrus Conference meet tonight here in Suncoast Credit Union Arena as the #13 Florida SouthWestern State Buccaneers, winners of six straight, take on the Miami Dade Sharks, winners of five straight, in the Bucs final home game of the 2025 season.

The Bucs and Sharks have been familiar foes over the years with FSW controlling the all-time series to the tune of a 20-2 lead. This season has been an even match between the two with the home teams winning both contests. FSW took an 86-70 decision here in Suncoast Arena, shooting 52% from the field and winning the rebounding battle by 20 boards. Asiana Britt poured in 26 points for the Bucs in the win while Samantha Serrano added 15 and Georgi Buzzetti posted a 12 point, 16 rebound double-double. In Miami it was quite the opposite story as the Sharks dominated wire to wire in a 77-51 thumping of the Bucs. Cleaira Peterson posted a monster 26 point, 17 rebound double-double while Shameir Quimby followed suit with 20 and 11.

FSW clinched their first Conference Championship since 2022 on Saturday with their win over Santa Fe. Consistency has been the key for the Bucs who have started the same starting lineup in all 25 games this season. Last time the Bucs played here in Fort Myers, fans got a treat as Samantha Serrano hit a three point buzzer beater to beat Hillsborough 66-65 that was featured on ESPN's SportsCenter as the #5 play the next day.

Miami Dade has secured their spot in Niceville and is just one game behind Eastern Florida with three games left to go. The Sharks are looking for win number 20 tonight after rolling off six straight wins in February.

NEXT BUCS GAME: Monday, March 3rd @ Daytona State
